

Terms and Conditions

Swing Buzz Festival 2025 - 3-5 October 2025, Sofia, Bulgaria

1. All communication regarding payments, schedules, venues and any changes regarding the event will be communicated on the event Facebook page and at the email that you have provided in your registration.
2. By submitting your registration form, you are registered for the event but your place in the workshop is not confirmed until we receive payment.
3. After your registration has been processed, you will receive a confirmation email with the status of your registration. In case the workshop is currently full or the imbalance between leaders and followers is too big, you will be put on a waiting list. Otherwise your registration will be approved to proceed with payment.
4. Should you be put on a waiting list, once there is a spot for you, your registration will be approved and you can proceed with payment.
5. Should your registration be approved to proceed with payment, you will receive an email containing details about the payment option you have selected during the registration. From this point you will have 7 calendar days in order to complete the payment.
6. Once we receive your payment, your place in the workshop is confirmed. Should you fail to complete the payment within the 7 day period, your registration will be rejected. If you want to register again you will have to create a new registration or contact us.
7. There will be no refunds for cancellations.
8. Swing Society Ltd will not be held responsible for any physical injuries, or damages to/thefts of private property that might occur during the workshop.
9. Our authorized photographers and only they will be allowed to take photos and videos for the duration in the event, including the classes and parties and including all participants in the event. The photo and video materials might be used by Swing Society Ltd for commercial purposes.

By agreeing with the Terms and Conditions for the attendees of Swing Buzz Festival 2025 you state that you fully agree with the content of this document and will obey all the rules and regulations.
